I am brand new with this country and this professional career and I would like to start and add in some experience on this part of my resume starting from here. 🙌

Theater/Stage Performances

I only had a few plays with college classmates when I was still a student. Just for fun!

Recent project for films:

2023 Casino commercial shooting

2024 PECO commercial shooting

2024 Styleweek at RI 6/13/2024

Training

I took a modeling training class when I just graduated from college in Taiwan.

I attended the training class with PMTM Agency when I was chosen and lucky to attend the Universal Actors Sessions in April. Also attended the training before the event.

Education

TaHwa College at HsinChu, Taiwan R.O.C.

Major in Mechanical Engineering with Bachelor Degree

Special Skills

I am bilingual and can speak well with Mandarin and English (I can also speak some different dialects in the Taiwan area. Taiwanese and Hakka) I also can speak a "little" Japanese and Korean because I was doing business with overseas customers when I was in Taiwan.

I am a self-study artist and also love to write calligraphy. I was in the chorus from 10 years old until college. I also joined the drum group when I was in Junior high. I was also part of the Chinese Music Club when I was in college and played Lute (Pipa) and singing when we performed in college. I learned some Chinese drama gestures when I was little. I am modeling part time when I was in Taiwan just graduated from college (just for fun)

I was teaching Mandarin class for a few years in High School in the US, also a few years as a Teacher's assistant from preschool to 8 grades too.

Most of my career, I have worked as a Sales, Customer Service Admin., Marketing and PR position with overseas clients.

I was working as a Beauty Advisor at Chanel Counter. Also worked for Tom Ford as a Counter Manager at perfumes Department then transferred to Emporio Armani. I am a Freelancer for Tom Ford and Dior.
